Solid Insurance At The Right Price

INSURANCE INSIGHTS

Spring 2022

Commercial Insurance is not always easy to navigate. Most of our clients have at least a vague idea of what they need based on prior experience with auto insurance or home insurance. However, once we start talking through the various aspects to a business plan, such as clientele, business properties, vehicles, or other services that business might offer, these plans oftentimes become complex. Here at Brukhouse, we strive to communicate that complexity in simple terms so that our clients understand why we recommend certain coverages at specific premiums. That way, our clients can be satisfied with the knowledge that they made an informed decision that works for their business.

Personal Lines:

I'm the Personal Lines Manager and usually the first person you will meet as a new member of the Brukhouse family. Aside from loving insurance, I love to have numerous insurance options for our new and current clients for their varying insurance needs. With hail season coming up sooner rather than later, a focus point for a lot of people on the Front Range are their deductible options! We can offer a plethora of choices to fit all insurance budgets, so our Brukhouse family members know what out of pocket expenses to expect in the event of a loss before one even occurs! At Brukhouse, we treat your policies like we treat our own!

Renewing Policies:

Each year as your policy term is up for renewal, I will be reviewing your coverages to make sure your home and assets are adequately covered. Please remember to keep me updated on any changes or improvement to your home. Changes will impact your Replacement Cost Estimator (RCE) which is very important in keeping your policy up-to-date and current in these changing times.
